Online Testing Instructions

Ready to Work Exam – Exam Overview

- The entry level Ready-to-Work exam is designed for technicians who are just entering the HVAC field with little to no formal education or training.
- The exam includes a study guide which focuses on the fundamental job knowledge and skills a technician needs to know to enter the HVAC workforce, such as component identification, tool identification, basic heat transfer, general safety, and electrical safety.
- Unlike the other NATE exams, the Ready to Work exam bestows a certificate, instead of a certification.
- This exam can be taken online without a proctor at the technician's convenience.

Congratulations! You have passed the NATE exam shown above on the date indicated. NATE program information is available at www.natex.org.

To track your certification status or update your contact information anytime at the MyNATE site at www.myNATE.org. If you have never used the myNATE site before, you must create a myNATE log in.

To do this, please visit www.myNATE.org. Click on the "First Time User" tab; select either paper-based or computer based (online) exam as your activation type; and enter your Activation Code from your exam session, and your last name. Then click "Activate."

At this point any information NATE already has on file will auto-fill in the fields below. Please fill in any remaining blank fields (which will include User Name and Password). Once complete, click "Register." A verification email will be sent to you. Once you verify your email address by clicking on the link in the email you receive, you will be able to use your User Name and Password to log into myNATE.

Please ensure your contact information, including mailing address and email address, is correct on your myNATE profile. This information is critical for NATE to be able to send you your certificate and keep in touch with you about future testing opportunities.

If you already have a myNATE login, you can update your contact information by clicking the profile button at the top of your myNATE page. You must provide a current mailing address so that we can send you your certification packet which includes one NATE patch and chevron. You can purchase more online at www.store.natex.org.

Results by Domain:

Your scores are based on small subsets of test questions (content domains) and should be considered rough estimates of your knowledge within each domain.

Domain	Percent Correct
Components	91%
Tools	100%
Measurements/Units	100%
Electrical Safety	100%
Basic Heat Transfer	100%
General Safety	88%

* Percent Correct is the number of items answered correctly in a domain divided by the total number of scored items within that domain.

We will provide you with your certificate and wallet card digitally so you can print them for free as often as you like and proudly share your NATE certificate electronically with others via email and social media, such as Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter and even on your company website. You must provide us with a current email address, so that we can send you your e-certificate.
